

BOODLE THE CAUSE
OF A FRENCH ROWTHE WHOLE CABINET HAS RE-SIGNED IN CONSEQUENCE.

Attitude of the Government in the Matter of the Southern Railways Condemned by the Chamber of Deputies—Ministry All Quit Their Jobs—To Prosecute the Unregenerate.

Paris, Oct. 29.—The cabinet resigned yesterday as a result of a government defeat in the chamber of deputies during the debate on the Southern railway scandal.

President Faure has accepted the resignation of the ministry.

The ministry which has just resigned was formed on Jan. 26, by M. Ribot, after the fall of the Dupuy ministry. It was composed of the following members: M. Ribot, prime minister and minister of finance; M. Hanotaux, minister for foreign affairs; General Zurlinden, minister of war; Admiral Besnard, minister of marine; M. Traillieux, minister of justice; M. Leygues, minister of the interior; M. Poincaré, minister of public instruction and worship; M. Dupuy-Dutemps, minister of public works; M. Lebon, minister of commerce; M. Gadaud, minister of agriculture; M. Chautemps, minister of the colonies.

PRESIDENT FAURE.

In the chamber of deputies yesterday M. Rouanet, who has been prominent in exposing those who were connected with the Panama canal and Southern railroad syndicates, questioned the government regarding the South of France railroad scandal, it being alleged that a number of senators, deputies and others have made large profits out of the company by fair or unfair means.

He declared that the good repute of Parliament was involved, and asked for explanation as to the partiality which had been shown toward those involved in the scandals, claiming that the authorities had been afraid to prosecute them because the deputies and senators involved with the late Baron Reinach of Panama canal fame had deposited 3,850,000 francs in devious ways, and on behalf of the Southern railway he demanded that the minister of justice, M. Trarieux, publish the documents in the case which were in his possession, and which would throw light on the subject.

M. Binder, a member of the Right, then charged the minister of justice with culpable leniency, and demanded that the guilty parties be punished. The whole chamber was at once in an uproar. When he was able to make himself heard, the minister of justice added that the majority of those whose names had been mentioned had explained their positions, and he concluded with the remark:

"The chamber knows the truth, and if Parliament considers its dignity and honor compromised, the government will join the chamber in voting for repressive measures, and in the face of these explanations asks the chamber for a vote of confidence."

The order of the day, pure and simple, was then submitted to the chamber and rejected by a vote of 406 to 105. M. Rouanet's motion asking for an explanation as to the partiality which had been shown toward those involved in the scandals, claiming that the authorities had been afraid to prosecute them, and demanding that the minister of justice publish the documents in the case, which were in his possession, was then adopted by a vote of 275 to 196.

After the adoption of this motion the ministers left the chamber of deputies in a body, amid ironical radical cheers, and went to the Elysee palace, where they handed in their resignations to President Faure.

The chamber of deputies was adjourned for a week. The Figaro recently said that the following named members of the chamber of deputies, who were members of the South of France railway syndicate, made the profits set against their names: Jules Roche, 25,000 francs; M. Rouvier, 6,750 francs; M. Etienne, 3,000 francs; M. Deloncle, 5,000 francs; M. Passy, 12,500 francs; M. Le Mercier, 4,500 francs.

The Figaro added that these deputies were not prosecuted because the official countant, M. Flory, was of the opinion that the formation of the syndicate was perfectly regular, and, therefore, its members were not guilty of corruption.

It is to be presumed that it was upon this subject that the debate arose which eventually resulted in the defeat of the government, the latter having control of the railroads in France.

Ex-Senator Magnier, as cabled at the time, was found guilty of corruption in connection with the administration of the South of France Railway Company and was sentenced Oct. 19 to a year's imprisonment.

Ribot's excessive pliability earned him the nickname of the "gutta percha minister." Nothing is known yet as to who will be his successor, but the latest rumor is that Leon Bourgeois will be commissioned to form a cabinet and will attempt to organize a radical ministry. Bourgeois, one of the few really able and disinterested French statesmen, has long bided his time to form a progressive government.

If he fails Dupuy or Bisson may accept the task. The former has lately renewed intrigues similar to those which caused the resignation of Casimir-Perier as president, but he has numerous enemies.

In any case, M. Hanotaux will stay at the head of foreign affairs. He does not belong to the chamber of deputies and stands aloof from political parties. He has gained prestige by his arrangement of the French-Chinese treaty and strengthening of the French-Russian alliance.

The first act of the new cabinet must be to prosecute the boudling deputies—Roche, Rouvier and Deloncle.

A Fleet of Fourteen Powerful Vessels Gather in the Chinese Harbor and the Indications are That the Czar Will Force a War—Interview Regarding the Situation.

Shanghai, Oct. 29.—Five Russian warships are inside and nine are outside of the harbor of Port Arthur. Odessa, Oct. 30.—Another cruiser of the Russian volunteer fleet has started with a contingent of sailors, ammunition and war material to join the Russian fleet cruising near Japan.

Talks of Russia's Grab. Important Concessions Have Been Made by the Flowery Kingdom. London, Oct. 29.—In spite of the statement of a high official that the alarming dispatch of the Times from Hong-Kong, regarding important concessions made by China to Russia, "bears no resemblance to the actual facts," the news seems to be confirmed from two sources.

G. E. Morrison, who recently traveled through China, writes that as far back as August last the Chinese newspapers outlined a scheme by which China proposed to reward Germany, France and Russia for their intervention against Japan. Germany, he says, was to have concessions of land at the treaty ports of Hankow and Tien-Tsin; France was to be granted certain privileges in southeast China, and Russia was to be allowed to extend her railway system to Port Arthur.

The second ground for believing the report is found in a dispatch to the Daily Telegraph from Vienna, giving an outline of an interview with a well-known Russian statesman, who practically admits the truth telegraphed from Hong-Kong to the Times.

Russian Officer Talks. Hong Kong, Oct. 29.—Speaking at a public banquet at Vladivostok on Sept. 27, which was given in his honor on the occasion of his departure for Europe, General Doukhovskoy, governor general of eastern Siberia, referred to the new Manchurian concession and strongly urged that the community be not alarmed by it, for Vladivostok must remain the headquarters, though a portion of the fleet would be at Port Arthur. The governor and port admiral of Vladivostok spoke in the same strain.

Three missions, with an escort of 100 Cossacks each, started respectively from Nerchinsk, Blagovestehensk and Nikol'sk to explore and survey certain portions of the interior of Manchuria.

Will Be Settled by the Courts. Washington, Oct. 29.—A question has arisen in the treasury department under Sec. 6 of the tariff act of 1894, which provides that no article of imported merchandise which shall copy or simulate the name or trade mark of any domestic manufacture shall be admitted to entry at any custom house of the United States. In order to aid customs officers, domestic manufacturers may have their names and trade marks registered in the treasury department. Some weeks ago the "Ilgen Watch company" filed its trade mark under the provisions of this section, and three days later the Elgin Watch company filed a protest. The matter will probably be sent to the courts for determination.

Boy Threatened by Lynchers. Washington, Oct. 29.—Albert Hawkins, a Washington colored boy, 16 years old, was yesterday arrested charged with assaulting Sadie Sherrier, the 12-year-old daughter of a wealthy German living about four miles from here in Virginia. A mob of white men gathered around the magistrate's house, where he was confined, and threatened to lynch him. The colored people, however, armed themselves with shot guns and for a time it looked like serious trouble might ensue. No clash occurred, however, and the boy was spirited away.

For Assaulting a Marshal. Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 29.—Judge Woolson in the federal court today sentenced the assailants of United States Marshal Wray, Gabriel Johnson and John Collett received six years each and $2,000 fine, and George Johnson three years and $1,000 and Hetty Johnson eighteen months and $500. These parties made the assault on the federal marshal in 1894. They were captured in Missouri.

Threatened with Lynching. Perry, Ok., Oct. 29.—Jim Greyson, Lee Potoson, Jim Stephenson, and Bill Petty were arrested for the murder of J. W. Swilling, a laborer in the Seminole Indian country, some days ago. After the arrest Greyson confessed. Considerable excitement prevails and there is some talk of lynching.

Outbreak in China Feared. Hong Kong, Oct. 29.—An extensive anti-foreign outbreak is expected at Canton. Four hundred braves, enlisted here by the viceroy, have gone to that city.

Can Not Be Docked at New York. Washington, Oct. 29.—Now it appears that even the Texas, a second-class battle ship, cannot be docked at New York without waiting for a big tide. This has caused some speculation among naval officers as to what would occur if the ship met with an accident at sea and came into port in a sinking condition.

MUCH WORK DONE BY THE ALDERMEN

BUSY SESSION OF THE COUNCIL LAST NIGHT.

Uniform Charter Proposition Was Killed—Names of Streets Changed Bills and Notes Paid—Damage Claims Filed—County Gets License Money—Routine Business.

Janesville's city fathers held a busy session at the council chamber last night. They voted down the proposition to adopt the uniform charter, they referred the proposition of the banks to receive the city deposits to a committee to see whether or not it would effect the treasurer's bondmen; the statement of the water company was received but no action was taken; the names of two streets were changed; a note of $1,012.25 was ordered paid and the city clerk was directed to pay the county $2,300, the sum due on saloon licenses, besides considerable other business.

All the aldermen were present except Smith and Stearns. After the minutes had been read and approved, the reports of the school board for two months were received, found correct and ordered published. Mary Agnes King's protest against paying the assessment for the repairing of the Milwaukee street sewer was presented and referred to the sewerage committee which committee afterwards reported that the council had nothing to do with it and recommended that the communication be received and placed on file. Alderman Burnham, of the sewerage committee, in making the recommendation, said that the property owners had made contracts with the firm that did the work of their own accord, and he did not see where the city was concerned at all. The motion was adopted.

Damage Claim Filed.
Miss Ella V. Pratt served notice on the council that she was holding the city responsible for the injuries she received by reason of the alleged defective sidewalk in front of the Armory block. It was referred to the judiciary committee and further time was granted.

The supplemental statement of the water company was read by the clerk, but no action was taken.

Three banks submitted proposals to receive the city deposits, but Mayor Baines stated that there was a question as to whether or not the move would effect the treasurer's bondmen, so the matter was referred to the finance committee and the city attorney to investigate and report at the next meeting.

The grade of Madison avenue from Mineral Point avenue north was accepted and filed as was also the city engineers report on the frontage on Fourth and Fifth avenues.

The statement of City Engineer Bleedorn on the number of square yards of cement walk put in by Mr. Crossman around the new High school lot was read. In the walk proper there are 333 15 square yards. In the approach between the curb and wall there are four square yards, making a total of 337.15 square yards, which at $1.15 per yard amounts to $387.72. The statement was referred to the highway and bridge committee.

An Invitation Received.

An invitation was received from the Palmer Memorial Hospital to visit that institution, after which Mayor Baines stated that he had received a letter from the makers of the stone crusher offering to discount the bill for that machine ten per cent if the city would pay for it before Oct. 20. Their original proposition was to discount eight per cent, but Mayor Baines said he had finally succeeded in getting an offer of ten per cent. It was stated, however, that the company had failed to send a balance wheel that they had broken in putting the machine up so no action will be taken until the machine is complete.

Chairman Heddles of the finance committee reported in paying a number of bills and the report was adopted. The city clerk was instructed to make a special tax roll for the Fourth and Fifth avenue grades.

The Charter Turned Down.

Alderman Inman of the charter committee had been designated as spokesman by that committee and made the following report which was adopted.

TO THE MAYOR AND COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF JANESVILLE: The committee appointed by the mayor to consider the advisability of an ordinance adopting the general charter law of Wisconsin as a whole, and the charter for the city of Janesville, reports as follows:

The committee came together and organized by the election of John W. Sale chairman, and

R. R. Inman secretary, and entered upon the consideration and discussion of the general charter law, continuing the same during several sessions.

The committee met almost at the outset objections to certain sections of the general charter law which to the entire committee seem insurmountable.

We found in section 6 and in section 26 possible resulting conditions so suggestive of difficulty, both legal and practical, that we do not feel justified in recommending the adoption of this law as a whole. Dated October 24, 1895. Respectfully submitted, J. W. SALE, Ch'm. R. R. INMAN, Sec'y.

Much Routine Work Done.

On Alderman Burnham's introduction of a petition asking that it be done, the name of Sara street was changed to Prairie avenue. Captain Richard Griffiths asked for permission to take his steamboat out of the river at Fifth street, and the matter was referred to the highway committee.

On Alderman McLean's motion the two feet of ground around the new high school was ordered graded at the expense of the general fund.

The following orders were adopted: A. D. Heddles—To pay A. S. Lee $1,012.25 from the fire and water fund to take up note. Also to pay County Treasurer C. N. Nye $2,300, being $50 due the county on each of the forty-six saloon licenses granted in 1895; granting Mrs. Abbie Corwin permission to use a portion of Terrace street, in front of her residence for a horse power to be used in drilling a well; granting John Spoon permission to use a portion of the street in front of No. 107 Washington street for building purposes; changing the name of Madison avenue to Washington street.

Other Orders Passed.

Alderman Kothman—To lay a tile culvert across Armour street on the south side of Western avenue.

Alderman Winslow—To clean out the gutters on Court street from South Main street to the river; to cover the display fountain in the Court House park and Corn exchange on November 1st or as soon thereafter as possible and store all seats.

Alderman Hemming—To pay B. P. Crossman $300 from the general fund, being part payment for laying the cement walk around the new high school building; the balance to be paid when the work is completed and accepted by the proper committee.

An invitation to attend the annual meeting of the Humane society and listen to the address of Rev. L. J. Jones was received and on Alderman McLean's motion, the council resolved to attend in a body. Adjournment was then taken.

PACER "BADGE" HERE LAST NIGHT

Finishes the Season with a Fast Record

Money and Glory.

"Yes, Badge retires for the season with a record of 2:08 1/2; plenty of money, and unlimited glory," said Driver J. B. Easton, as he swung the car door open last night so that a Gazette reporter could take a look at the "Minnesota wonder." Mr. Easton and his horse arrived in Janesville over the C. & N. W., being on his way to his home in Rochester, Minnesota. Badge is one of the fastest horses in the world.

"He has gone half miles in 2:01," said Mr. Easton as he patted his pet on the neck. "He got his mark of 2:08 1/2 at Galesburg," Mr. Easton continued, "and the only accident we had was at Louisville. There we had Ella T., Vera Capel and Moonstone beaten, but the tire came off the sulky and Ella T. won the heat. It was my intention to take Badge into Texas and North Carolina, but there was not money enough in sight. Badge will be nine years old next year. Yes; I shall attend the Janesville meeting if possible."

Resolutions on Respect

American Lodge No. 26, D. of R., at their regular meeting, Oct. 26, '95, adopted the following memorial and resolution:

Less than three years ago there came seeking admission into our sisterhood, one whose tender sympathizing heart was ever open to the appeals of suffering humanity, that she might in a more perfect manner, broaden her field of usefulness; Sister Alice Ashley. Kind and genial in disposition was she who among us has not been made better and happier by an intimate association with her in our lodge and social meetings. Quiet and unassuming in manner she soon won a warm place in each heart, and there exerted an influence for good that we trust may never cease to be felt, but abide with us making us more charitable, more forgiving, more united. The Father of all has called her from our sight, to rest from her labors and receive the reward of those who are faithful to their mission. We shall miss this faithful sister, this loving friend, who has given us in her daily life so worthy an example who has cooperated with us so well, who has served us in the noblest capacity; and our hearts go out in tenderest sympathy to our brother, who was her companion, to her precious children, and to all who by this dispensation of God's providence have been called to mourn the loss of one so dear. In outward token of this sympathy be it

Resolved, That this memorial be published in our local papers and "The Widows' and Orphans' Friend," and recorded with the minutes of our lodge; that our charter and past noble grand's chair be draped in mourning for thirty days.

GIGGLE GABBLE

A Boston Philosopher's Merry Musings.

A Well-aimed Shot That Hit the Mark.

Fashion's Follies Pierced by Witty Words.

When Oliver Wendell Holmes was asked his idea of an afternoon tea, he wittily replied that it could be easily defined in four words: "Giggle, gabble, gobble, git." How aptly this applies to the American way of eating. The food is swallowed in a hurry, and half digested, remains a load on the stomach; the system is not nourished and thus the blood becomes impoverished. There is a feeling of fullness, with yawning, constipation, paleness of the face, icy coldness of the feet, faintness in the morning and drowsiness during the day. All these show that the blood is thick and stagnant, the result of eating improperly. Rich, red blood is needed, and to make this the stomach must be helped to do its work rightly. Nothing aids the stomach as much as a tonic, and thousands of people have learned that there is only one for such cases. Mr. S. W. McLaughlin, who resides at 253 Oxford street, Portland, Me., tried this tonic and here is the result in his own words:

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia for a long time, so that my food distressed me severely and I often threw up my food, and my sufferings were severe. This continued for three months.

"I employed doctors and several kinds of high recommend medicines, but nothing did me any good until I struck Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. I heard it highly recommended and went for it and I am cured. I used five bottles.

What a world of good Dr. Greene's Nervura, the great blood and nerve remedy, did the writer of this letter. It helped him as he never had been helped before. You need such a tonic; you are suffering as he did; you can be cured as he was. It is useless to put off getting this grand medicine: every day that you wait means added torments. End your sufferings at once by taking the remedy which has saved thousands throughout the world and which is the wonderful discovery of the well-known practicing physician, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th street, New York City, whom you can consult either personally or by letter without charge.

JOHN DAY CLEARED BY THE FACULTY

THE SUSPENDED SOPHOMORES ARE REINSTATED.

Petition Fifteen Feet Long Was Presented by the Students, Together With a Pledge to Refrain From Such Practices in the Future—Action Was Taken Last Night.

John Day, who was suspended from the state university, with two others, for playing a joke on the freshmen, has been reinstated and exonerated. This action was taken by the faculty last night. Representatives of all the classes were present at the meeting and presented a petition fifteen feet long, signed by the students. After considerable deliberation the following resolutions were unanimously adopted by the faculty:

WHEREAS, The students of the several classes in the university have heartily and voluntarily expressed their regret for the recent disturbance and have given their unconditional assurances that hereafter they will exert their influence in favor of preventing any similar disorder, and

WHEREAS, The purpose of the action of the faculty in suspending the students detected in making the disturbance was not so much to punish them for an act of greater or less thoughtlessness, as to convince the whole body of the students that order in the university must not be interrupted, and

"WHEREAS, We believe the attitude of the students furnishes evidence that such object has now been attained, therefore

"Resolved, That Messrs. Day, Pope and Dillon be and they hereby are reinstated in the university."

The decision of the faculty was received with great satisfaction and rejoicing on the part of the students, as the suspended men were popular in their class and prominent especially in athletics, and in view of the circumstances, their punishment was considered unjust.

A FIRE ON A FARM WAS A COSTLY ONE

CYRUS TEESTHORN OF LIMA LOSES HEAVILY.

Granary and 1,300 Bushels of Grain
Was Destroyed—Blaze at Will Frank's—Football Game at Milton—Gossip From Clear Lake, Cooks-ville and Other Towns.

Lima, Oct. 29.—The past week has been a hard one for the town insurance company. The granary, with about 1,300 bushels of grain and a number of small buildings on the farm of Cyrus Teesthorn, were burned Tuesday afternoon and a small fire occurred at Will Frank's Saturday. Loss in all is estimated at $1,400. Mrs. L. Child is visiting her sons in Hanover and Janesville. B. Carlson, of Cooks-ville visited his sister, Mrs. L. A. Chapman, one day last week. Mrs. James came up from Whitewater Saturday to see her sister, Mrs. E. Elphick who is quite sick again. The poverty social will be in Odd Fellows hall Friday evening, November 1. A good program will be presented and a five-cent lunch served. All invited. O. E. Truman and family spent last Friday in Janesville. Hugh Nugent's little boy had his arm badly broken last Thursday while playing at school. The U. B. society gave an oyster supper in Reese & Anderson's hall last evening. B. F. ### FOOTBALL GAME AT MILTON.

Edgerton's Aged Players Defeat the Junction Boys—Other News Notes.
The Edgerton and Milton Junction High School (so called) football teams met on the gridiron in this village Friday afternoon. It was the first regular game played here and drew out a good crowd. Edgerton won by a score of 14 to 3 and it is not to their credit that the Junction boys were allowed to score. The Edgerton team is older, heavier in practice in tackling, interference and sprinting are far superior to the Junction boys who never played a regular game before. The Edgerton High School must have a lengthy course of study, judging from the fact that some of its representatives in the game were thirty to thirty-five years of age. If the management would shave these "oldsters" before playing them against beardless boys, it would be more to the credit of their high school. Lieutenant E. F. Warran, the Albany miller, was here Friday, disposing of buckwheat flour. He reports plenty of water in Sugar river. Rev. Richard Miller, of Janesville, was in town last Monday. Fetherston Bros' shipments last week included two cars of barley, one car of rye and two of live hogs. Mr. and Mrs. Burns of Chicago, visited Milton relatives and friends Saturday and Sunday. Carl Davy, the Genesee operator, spent Sunday here. Peter Home, the Bassemmer, Mich. merchant, visited Milton relatives last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Orde Fessenden of Fulton, spent Sunday visiting at Will Stockman's. Mrs. C. S. Stockman spent part of last week visiting her parents in Janesville. We hear that Henry Green's daughter has been quite sick at the home of Dr. Hull where she has been employed for some time as a domestic. ### DONNELLY & GIRARD TONIGHT.

Great Comedians Will Put On Their New Play, the Rainmakers.

By far the most important theatrical event of the season in this city is the forthcoming engagement of the popular comedians Donnelly and Girard in the remarkable successful farce-comedy "The Rainmakers." The comedians and their entire New York Company will appear at Myers Grand this evening. All the remarkable electrical and mechanical effects, together with more than a carload of special scenery used in New York, will be seen here.
Mr. Donnelly assumes the character of Percival Airtight, a ubiquitous hotel clerk, and Mr. Girard will assist him in the role of Felix Bottles, the head porter of the establishment. The proprietor of the Hotel Chick has absconded at the beginning of the play, leaving Percival Airtight in charge. The rise of the curtain discloses a strike among the servants in full progress in the hotel, in which the versatile hotel clerk has his hands full in handling. The fun commences at the very outset, and runs fast and furious throughout the play.

To Steady the Nerves

Is a task to the accomplishment of which narcotics and sedatives are inadequate. The effect they produce is paralytic. They destroy sensation without benefit to the nerves. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, on the contrary, strengthens and soothes the nervous system. Overwork and mental and physical strain, and there is no more reliable means of bracing it and restoring nerve quietude, than by reinforcing digestion and promoting assimilation of the food. The effects are always consequent upon the use of the great stomachic. Fasting strength is recuperated, a regular habit of blood restored, and appetite improved by the bitters. Disease must be regarded as an exceptionally remote possibility by any one whose system has been thus reinforced. Malarial disease, constipation, dyspepsia, rheumatism and kidney troubles are overcome by and prevented by this standard medicine, which has no peer among American tonics, and is constantly increasing demand in Mexico, the West Indies and South India.

FOLKS WITH PAINS

How to Get Rid of the Pain.

Pains in the Back, Pains in the Muscles, Pains in the Joints Pains in the Head.

What Causes Them and What Cures Them.

Pain is a sign of disease. You want to get rid of it. There are two ways. Either to cure the disease or relieve the pain.

The first way is the better. The curing settles the disease and the pain. The relieving only helps the pain. It will come back again. The disease stays right where it is and eats away your health. You may not feel it while the pain is gone but it is there just the same.

Pain in the back is kidney trouble. It can be cured with Dr. Hobb's Spargus Kidney Pills.

It can be cured to stay away, and, with proper care, never to come back. Kidney trouble gives a great deal of trouble to doctors.

It is hard to cure. There are so many complications. They are generally so dangerous.

Only Dr. Hobb's Spargus Kidney Pills make such a large percentage of cures.

The Asparagus, from which they are made, has such a healing, soothing, curative action on the kidneys, it is such a gentle and healthful tonic, that it cures nearly every case of kidney trouble in which it is used.

Rheumatism is pain in the muscles. Lotions, etc., can only relieve the pain.

They can't cure the rheumatism. Rheumatism is a complication of kidney trouble. It is a poison in the blood. The kidneys should have taken it out but they didn't.

Hobb's Spargus Kidney pills will cure rheumatism. They do it by helping the kidneys in their work of purifying the blood. They do it so thoroughly that it is very seldom the rheumatism ever gets back.

Pain in the joints is gout. It is caused by a poison like rheumatism. It can be cured on the same plan, by curing the kidneys, by taking Dr. Hobb's Spargus Kidney Pills.

Pain in the head. This is a symptom of brain trouble, but it is caused by the kidneys.

The brain in working, uses up its substance. The blood supplies new substance. But when the blood is impure (as on account of sick kidneys) it gives no nourishment. The brain wears out. As it wears it pains. This is its danger signal.

Headaches, dizziness, neuralgia, etc., can be cured with Dr. Hobb's Spargus Kidney Pills. They do it by curing the kidneys, by renewing the purity of the blood.

People who have suffered from pains and aches for years should try Dr. Hobb's Spargus Kidney Pills.

Pure blood will cure their aches, and give them a new feeling of life and comfort.

For the blood is the life. But it must be pure blood.

Dr. Hobb's Spargus Kidney Pills are for sale at all druggists for 50 cents per box, or will be sent to any address, postage paid, on receipt of price.

Please write for valuable pamphlet, sent free by Hobb's Medicine Co., Chicago or San Francisco.

Cupid breaks his bow at the sight of a face full of pimples and blotches. Hollow cheeks, sunken eyes, and a sallow complexion will defy his best intentions. Beauty is more than skin deep. The skin is merely the surface on which is written the plain characters of the condition of the body.
Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is good for the complexion because it makes the whole body healthy—because it clears and purifies the blood, makes the digestion strong and clears out impurities of all kinds. By increasing the ability to assimilate nutritious food, and by the infusion of its own ingredients it enriches the blood and so makes solid, healthy flesh. It cures diseases of the lungs, liver, stomach, bowels, skin and scalp, simply because all these diseases spring from the same cause—a disordered digestion and consequent impure blood. Sold by all medicine dealers.

MONEY ALL PAID BACK.

Practically every penny that was subscribed in England toward the last American loan has got back through the expansion in the exports of woolens and worsteds, and this is only a part of the process by which that country has drawn from the United States the money to pay for the American bonds which its capitalists took from us at a higher rate of interest than our government had paid for many years. It would be well if the American people could be induced to seriously reflect upon what this means. Under a democratic tariff there has been a reduction of the revenues below the requirements of the government and at the same time a large increase in importations without a corresponding increase of exports. This condition caused a drain upon the gold treasury reserve which compelled the treasury to borrow. It could do this only by negotiating with foreign capitalists, having found it impracticable to place a loan at home. The money subscribed abroad for this loan has been more than returned in the enlarged sales which foreign manufacturers have been able to make in the American market under the present tariff, and the authority which tells us of this fact at the same time says that "it will not be easy for the Americans to regain their old footing in our market," owing to the increased competition of India, Australia and Argentina. There is presented in this a condition which ought to command the serious attention of the American people.

NO MORE PRIZE FIGHTS.

If October 31 passes without a fight between Corbett and Fitzsimmons, there never will be another prize fight on a great scale in this country. Pugilism is rapidly nearing the point of extinction in this country, so far as public demonstrations are concerned. The spirit of civilization is clearly against the kind of science that fights for gate receipts, and brings together great crowds of the worst elements of society. There can be no doubt about the drift of public sentiment in this respect when prize fighters are denied protection or indulgence in one state after another, and no place can be found where the law will permit them to give one of their brutal exhibitions.

Every church in Janesville is to be given a chance to know what every other church believes, if Rev. Victor E. Southworth can arrange it. Mr. Southworth holds misunderstanding responsible for most of the antagonism between churches and is anxious to do his best toward clearing that misunderstanding away.

A republican congress will do even more for the country than good crops. Trade conditions have forced New York merchants, many of them democrats, to admit that republicans were right and that this country must have reciprocity.

Not a democratic candidate has been endorsed by Mr. Cleveland this year. The men who "love him for the enemies he has made" will have plenty of chances before long.

How would a fight to a finish with type-writers at two hundred miles, answer Messrs. Corbett and Fitzsimmons? It seems to be about the sort of fight they are after.

The politicians don't want a short presidential campaign. Their hay-making time comes but once in four years and they won't have it curtailed.

Don't you take any stock in the talk about Ohio democrats repudiating Price. The Price check book is too much of an institution.

The Ribot ministry lasted nine months, and nine months seems about as long as a French ministry can remain honest.

Children's Reefers.

Commencing Wednesday and continuing through the balance of the week, we will show the entire sample line of Erderheimer Stein & Co's children's reefers. We will exhibit more child's garments of this kind than have ever been brought here before, and will be enabled to sell them for much less than we can later. The reefer is the best over garment for boys made. They are stylish and very warm. The lot will include all the latest novelties. Frank H. Baack.

JOHN BROWN STOLE TO BALK THE WOLF

DISCOURAGED SAILMAKER IS SENT TO JAIL.

Could Get No Work He Would Not Starve and so Committed Larceny to Collect a Living From the State
—Ennis Case Adjourned—Drunken Farmer Makes a Show of Himself.

"I have searched the town over for work and I found none," said John Brown, stranger, sailmaker by trade, and resident of the State of Wisconsin as he stood before the bar of the municipal court this morning.

"I have no money. I cannot starve on the street. The state owes me a living and I want to collect the bill."
Brown was arrested this morning.
It was charged against him in the complaint that he had stolen a pair of mittens from the clothing store of Frank H. Baack. Brown did not deny the theft. When Judge Phelps questioned him he made the above statement.

"I have offered to work for my board but no one would have me.
Then I resolved to steal to get into jail where meals are served three times a day and a fire burns in the stoves. I didn't want the mittens but I do want to live."

Get a Thirty-Days' Sentence.
Thirty days in jail was the sentence given him, and Brown went to jail happy and contented.

The case of the city of Janesville versus James Ennis, the saloonkeeper in whose place a number of men were arrested for playing poker some time ago, was called in the municipal court this morning, and by consent of the parties it was adjourned until November 29 at 9 o'clock a. m., at the municipal court room. Ennis is charged with keeping the place in which gambling was done.

A well known Bradford farmer made an exhibition of himself in his drunkenness last night, and Chief Acheson had to lock him up. He raised a row in several hotels and saloons, and when the chief got him, he fell between a horse and the buggy the animal was attached to, nearly breaking his neck. Chief Acheson took him to jail, but as the culprit begged and promised this morning, and Judge Phelps was out of town, it was decided to hold the matter open for a few days to see what the result would be.

BEE HIVE CLOSED FOR A TIME.

Proprietor Mayer Says He Will Resume In Thirty Days

Leo Mayer, proprietor of the "Bee Hive" closed his doors last night and Sheriff Appleby is in charge of the store. Eastern creditors drew on him and being unable to meet the draft, he closed up, although his assets are a third more than his liabilities. Mr.
Mayer left for the east today to see what arrangements he can make, and his trouble is said to be but temporary.

SMALL FIRE IN A DRUG STORE

Electric Light Wire Fired Wood Work at

An electric light wire started a

Associated Charities Planning For a Busy Season—Many Calls So Soon

The Associated Charities held a meeting yesterday afternoon in their rooms. The association have already had an unusually large number of appeals for help and predict that the coming winter will be a cheerless one for many people. Next week they will hold their annual meeting at which officers for the coming year will be elected.

STOOD AT CUPID'S SHRINE.

Fisher-Zimmerman.

Ellsworth E. Fisher and Miss Clara
E. Zimmerman, were married yesterday afternoon at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. E. J. Owen, 107 Linn street, the ceremony being performed by Rev. S. P. Wilder, of the Congregational church. Miss Cora B.
Zimmerman, sister of the bride, played the wedding march, and the bride and groom entered the room unattended.
The wedding feast followed the ceremony, and Mr. and Mrs. Fisher were warmly congratulated by the guests.
At 6:30 o'clock last evening they left for Chicago for a week's visit, previous to locating at Pontiac, Ill., where the groom is in business.

Both bride and groom are well known to Janesville people. The former is a young lady who is highly spoken of by all who know her, while the groom is a popular and well known business man. He is now the proprietor of the Hotel Phoenix at Pontiac which city will be their home.

OTHER CITY PASTORS VISIT ALL SOULS

CATHOLIC, EPISCOPAL, CON-GREGATIONAL AND OTHERS

Each Clergyman, Will Set Forth the Doctrinal Points of His Belief for the Benefit of the Ethical Culture Club Series of Sunday Evening Meetings.

A remarkable series of lectures have been arranged for at All Souls, the People's church. Beginning with Sunday, November 24, and continuing to Sunday, May 9, the Culture club will consider in succession the various organized sub-divisions of christianity.
The lectures will be given in the church at 5 o'clock p. m., and the doors are open to the public. The purpose of this series is to find out the facts with regard to each church; and arrangements have been made to have some representative of each deliver an address showing precisely what his special church stands for. Mr. Southworth says he strongly believes in the possibilities of a more hearty unity and spirit of cooperation among the churches; and he hopes that as a result of these lectures a spirit of sympathy and fellowship will be encouraged. We ought to be willing to hear the facts. Nothing can be gained by cherishing misconceptions and prejudices with regard to each other.

Very Rev. Dean McGinnity has consented to speak on "Roman Catholic Christianity."

Rev. A. H. Barrington will speak on "The American Episcopal Church."

Rev. S. P. Wilder will speak on "Congregationalism."

Secretary Kline and State President Whitehead will speak upon "The Young Men's Christian Association."

Judge J. R. Bennett will deliver an address upon "Christian Science."

It has been impossible to secure the services of the official clerical representative of the other local churches.
An effort will be made to bring some one from outside the city, or to secure a lay representative to speak on behalf of his or her church. The greatest good to our common religious life ought to come from such a work as this.

ALL COPY MUST BE IN EARLY.

As Winter Days Shorten Up The Gazette
Must Go to Press Earlier.

Hereafter all copy for display and reading advertisements must be in by noon in order to insure publication

pelled to make this rule by the fact that as the days get shorter the paper has to go to press promptly at 4 o'clock. In order to do this all composition must be finished by 3 o'clock, and no deviation from this regulation can be made.

Illinois Schoolhouse Burns.

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 29.—The schoolhouse at Elmwood burned yesterday morning. It was built in 1866, when it was one of the best buildings of the kind in the west, and was modernized several years ago at a heavy expense. Fortunately the scholars were at recess and time was given them to save nearly all their books. The school library, too, which was for public use, was nearly all saved. Instruction will go on in the Methodist and Presbyterian churches, and rebuilding will begin immediately.
Loss, $40,000; insurance, $15,000.

Please forgive us both."

ford, a farmer, who lived twenty miles southeast of Huron, started from here

REVENUE MEN HERE DOING QUIET WORK

SALOONS AND DRUGGISTS ARE UNDER WATCH.

Th: Glad News of Their Coming,
However, Had Gone Out Before—
They Are Not Thought to Have Found Anything But Reports May Err as to That.

"See that man who just went out?"
asked a local druggist as a stranger closed the door behind him.

"Yes."

"Well, he thinks I do not know what his business is. He asked the price of Dr. Squills' Plaster Paris Pills, and wanted to know all about the store. He's a revenue man."

And he was.

Two of them arrived in Janesville this morning. They were on a still hunt for derelict saloon keepers and druggists. At the former places they looked about to see if liquor was properly stamped, etc., and cast their eyes about for government licenses; and at the drug store they saw to it that the certificates of the pharmacists were in due form and perfectly displayed. A sharp-eyed druggist found them out early in the game, and the glad word was soon passed from store to store.
It is said that up to date they have found nothing to report on, but there may be a few surprise parties in store just the same.

KARL HANSON SOMEWHAT HURT.

NEWSPAPER CUTS.

How the Illustrations for Newspapers are Prepared and Made.

Probably in no department of the modern newspaper has the development been so rapid as that of producing the pictures and illustrations which go to make attractive the articles on daily happenings. Twenty years ago an editor considered himself lucky if he could have a "cut" made and ready for his "forms" in ten days. Now the drawings are made and the "cuts" finished in from one hour to an hour and a half. When an accident, disaster, or anything else of interest happens in the morning, newspaper readers expect to see pictures of the matter in afternoon papers.

To explain this comparatively new art is the purpose of this article. And, to begin the subject at the foremost end, one must speak of the newspaper artist. In the first place, he is a type by himself. He is even different from the individual who does the work for Frank Leslie's and Harper's Weeklies. They have plenty of time to correct errors. The newspaper man hasn't. He must be rapid, accurate and without finished. He must be able to draw everywhere, under any condition, and yet produce very creditable work. There are scores of these men. Their names are too numerous to mention.

To the cartoonist the editor gives an idea of what he desires. A photograph, if a likeness is wanted, is handed to the illustrating artist. If it is a picture of a railroad wreck or anything of this kind that is needed, the artist makes a trip to the scene with his first cousin, the reporter, and he takes in lines what the writer puts in words.

From the artist the picture then goes to that part of the building where the "illustrating department" is located. The man in charge is an expert in "photo engraving" or "zinc etching."

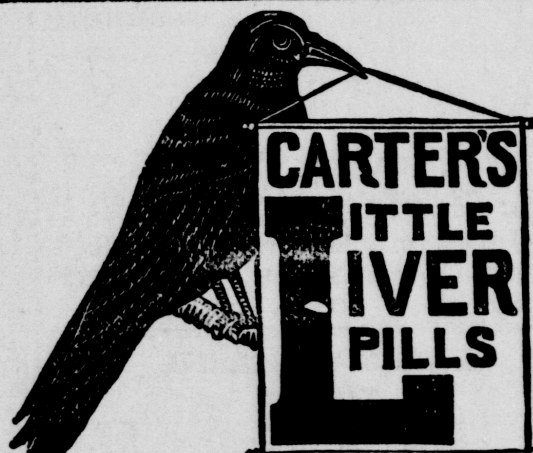

He seizes the drawing, slaps it into a frame before a powerful camera, and the picture is photographed with a density that would give the president of an amateur club spasms. The negative is almost black, but through it the lines of the sketch show with white transparency. Then a piece of zinc, the size the cut is to be, is covered with a secret solution, which has the property of becoming insoluble when affected by light. On this the powerful rays of an electric light are thrown through the white lines of the negative, and a picture, almost invisible to the eye, on the zinc is the result. The whole surface of the zinc is then lightly rolled with etchers' ink, after which it is given a bath in a tub of water. Wherever the surface of the plate has remained unaffected by the light the film dissolves, carrying away with it the ink. This, of course, leaves the insoluble lines on the plate, and by a few deft touches with a piece of cotton the operator brings the picture into view. The lines are then dusted with a powder made of "dragons' blood," which adheres to the sticky etchers' ink and forms a protection to them from the acid in which the plate is next immersed. In this last immersion the surface of the plate which is unprotected by the powder is eaten away by the acid, leaving the lines in relief. The plate is then finished, requiring an hour or an hour and a half, and it then goes to the form.

WHEN JENNY RODE TO MILL WITH ME.

When Jenny rode to mill with me,
The daisies bared their bosoms,
The spring winds ruffled every tree
And stirred a storm of blossoms.

The squirrels scampered from the hedge,
The cows were in the clover,
The lilies rimmed the river's edge
And dusky doves flew over.

The white road seemed to welcome us,
By shaken dewdrops dented,
The groves with song were tremulous,
By lonely violets scented.

The mad wind seemed to envy all
The curls beneath her bonnet,
And let the dew dashed blossoms fall
In twinkling showers on it.

How well the way old Milton knew
In all the springtime weather,
His back was broad enough for two,
And so—we rode together!

He loitered in the light and song,
He knew the spell that bound me,
And that the way was never long While Jenny's arms were round me!

The rose had then no cruel thorn
To mar the moment's blisses,
The miller took his toll in corn,
And I took mine in kisses.

But time has left us far apart,
Yet, though the years are many,
The dear old road runs round the heart
That frames the face of Jenny.

And I would give the world to see
The daisies' milk white bosoms
Where Jenny rode to mill with me
Amid a storm of blossoms.

—F. L. Stanton in Chicago Times-Herald.

A CRUEL KINDNESS.

The town had grown up to them and almost crowded itself into their front door, but they still lived on in the same old fashioned methods of the past half century, clinging to the chairs and tables they had when they were married, even retaining the little squeaky piano that had been Ann Maria's before she married a rich foreigner and changed to Anita Marie. The cradle she was rocked in when a baby, manufactured out of a barrel by her adoring father and covered skillfully with rose colored chintz, had been sent up to the attic, for it offended her fine sense of aesthetics when she came home to visit. The rag carpet in the living room was the work of leisure hours and had been in service twenty odd years, and the old man himself used to say lovingly while he regarded it with admiring eyes, "You'll never make another carpet like that, mother!" It was like the last painting of a great artist to him.

And now the old people had taken an outing that was to last a whole week, the result of a conspiracy in which Ann Maria was chief mover, aided and abetted by her sisters, who were married and settled in the same town and whom she was visiting.

While the old couple were gone, the conspirators possessed themselves of the key of the homestead, entered it stealthily and began what they considered a work of reform, which also was expected to be a delightful surprise to those most interested.

"We'll get that dreary old piano out of the way first," said its former owner, who had one now that cost a thousand dollars, "and the old rag carpet—it gives me a chill to see it—and all those dreadful framed photographs and chromos—I have a few oil paintings that I brought down with me on purpose to replace them—and that red tablecloth—Sophie, do you remember when we used to learn our lessons on that flaming thing? It looks as awfully red as ever, doesn't it?"

"Yes," answered Sophie, with a distinct sigh. "I wonder if we are as happy now as we were then, or if our conditions depend so much on surroundings—fine furniture, for instance?"

"Pshaw!" said Ann Maria with emphasis. "We must move with the world or be run over. Here, take those old peacock feathers and stow them away somewhere. I suppose it wouldn't do to burn them? I once thought the eyes in those feathers watched everything I did. We'll leave grandfather's clock because it's genuine and a fad now in the best society, and the older the better."

So they tore up and tore down, and in a few hours a really modern air pervaded every nook and corner. A pretty new carpet—not too gay, but with a pleasing assortment of colors—took the place of the despised rag carpet. New chairs, a handsome rug, an upholstered easy chair for "father" and a modern rocker for "mother" supplanted the long used furniture of the past, and the faded old photographs were removed to make room for smart paintings in consistent style with the new order of things. A white marseilles counterpane replaced the old log cabin quilt, every square of which had been an open book for "mother" to read. Other innovations were made throughout, and then the conspirators paused to look on their handiwork and take breath.

"That's the first work I've done in 20 years," said Ann Maria, wiping her flushed face with a real lace handkerchief, "but I'd just like to see the dear old couple when they open the door."

"I'm afraid they'll object to having the piano out of sight," said one of the sisters, "but they're sure to like everything else. Mother would never let me touch a chair, even to straighten it out, so I know the only way was to take her by surprise. Old folks get cranky about things they have had a long time. It isn't good for them to make idols out of old furniture."

"I should say not," added Ann Maria. "Besides it isn't the fashion now, as it was a few years ago. I was really afraid people would think we didn't appreciate our old folks to let them live on among that old rubbish."

The last finishing touches being accomplished, the sisters went to their respective homes, and at nightfall the two old folks walked into the domicile that had sheltered them for 40 years—the dearest spot on earth to them—home!

It had been planned by their knowing children that they were to enter the house alone to intensify the surprise in store for them and enjoy each other's delight over the occasion without witnesses.

But they, not knowing this, felt with the sensitiveness of age a little hurt and clung closer together as they entered the dark and silent dwelling, every step of which was like hallowed ground to their tired feet.

"I most wonder the girls ain't left a light a-burnin' for us. First time they forgot," said the old man as he stumbled over a chair.

"You know, father, Ann Maria's visitin' them. It makes a difference," said the mother in gentle, apologetic tones, that were her wont when defending "the children."

"Seems right good to be home again. Let's set an rest a spell afore we light up," suggested the old man, dropping into a handy chair.

But his form had scarcely touched it before he straightened himself out of it and said testily:

"It don't seem nat'ral. It most broke my back to set in that cheer! Mandy, there's something wrong!"

Mandy had been feeling along the shelf for the candle that year in and year out stood there like a tallow sentinel, and had never failed her in the darkest night. She found it, but not in its old place. It had been moved a hair's breadth to the left and felt queer to her touch.

"Gimme a match, Eben. I want to see what like is the can'le. Lord a-mercy, look at it, man!"

It certainly was not the same brand of candle that for all these years had been run in the tin mold behind the pantry door. It was a gorgeous twisted design in green wax with yellow stripes.

"That's the girls' doin's, I bet," said the old man, putting on his glasses to take a better look at the intruder.

"Gosh! What a lookin' candle!"

As its rays diffused a light through the room the two old people began to investigate. They looked around, then into each other's faces, and both fear and wonderment were expressed in their startled glances.

"Mandy," said the old man at last, "we've gone and got into the wrong house!"

"I b'lieve it," answered Mandy feebly, "but then whereabouts is ours?"

"Let's look at the outside." And the "girls," who were watching at their own windows, saw a glimmering light dancing like an ignis fatuus before the old house and could discern the unwonted spectacle of their father and mother inspecting the outside of their home by candle light. It struck them as very funny.

Meanwhile the truth had revealed itself in part to the old people, and holding aloft the flaming wax candle they took an inventory of the new furniture, from the carpet on the floor to the paintings on the walls. It was well the conspirators were not there to hear them. It might have given them a shock.

"Even the pianny's gone," said Mandy, wringing her hands, "the dear old pianny where Ann Maria learned to play 'Hang Up the Baby's Stockin' afore she was 10 years old! I couldn't have b'lieved it, and my hit and miss carpet that I made with my own hands—and the red tablecloth, the cheerfulest thing!—you could see it for a mile when the door was open and we was lighted up—and my picters of the children taken every year of their lives—it's worse than robbery. I don't doubt they meant well, but it's broke my heart!"

"I near broke my back tryin' to set in one of them new fangled cheers," said the old man, spurning the smart chair with his foot. "I do wonder, Mandy, if they left us anything to set on?"

"They've left the clock," said Mandy. "I'm thankful for that! I declare, father, it seems like an old friend," and holding father's hand she stood long before the venerable timepiece, regarding it with loving eyes.

It was near daylight when the two old people had seen the last of their new possessions, and arranged them to their entire satisfaction. The fancy candle had burned down to a mound of green and yellow wax and been replaced by a straight, uncompromising tallow, homemade, that shed a serene light on two old faces that looked very tired, but wore a conscious expression of peace and triumph. And even in their dreams they smiled.

"To think of it!" said Ann Maria, when she tells the story. "After all our planning and contriving, when we went over the next day to see how they were enjoying their new surroundings, they had put back every article of the old stuff we moved, rag carpet, photographs and all, and packed the new things up in the attic. They wouldn't have a new chair, nor a tablecloth, nor anything. Said the things weren't comfortable. Talk about Ephraim being joined to idols—father and mother could give him pointers out of their experience," and she sighed over the degeneracy of age.—Mrs. M. L. Rayne in Detroit Free Press.

The Story Told of Mannis Heatherton.

Mannis Heatherton, a 90-year-old citizen of Greenup, Ky., was once carried off by a panther and was little the worse for it. His father lived on Grassy creek 86 years ago. One evening, while he was absent on a hunt, a huge panther bounded into the yard, and, catching Mannis, then 4 years old, in its teeth, disappeared in the forest. When Mr. Heatherton came home an hour later, his wife, who had just recovered from the faint into which she had fallen when the beast seized her child, told him what had happened, and, following the brute, he found it lying asleep on a sunny hillside with the babe under its paw and shot it dead, rescuing his son, who was but slightly injured.—New Orleans Picayune.

A PEOPLE OF FEW WORDS

"Let your speech be yea, yea, and nay, nay," says the Good Book, "for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil." The Shakers abide by the spirit of this rule. Their words are few, simple, sincere and direct. They waste no energy in idle talk; they use it in thinking and doing. And whatever they do they do with their might. They are content with nothing short of the essence and principles of the things they investigate. They take pains and are patient. And thus the doors of many strange truths open to them. In this way they discovered what may almost be called the unity of disease. A venerable Shaker says of it: "It is said that one man's meat is another man's poison. That is but half the truth. Any man's meat is any man's poison under certain conditions. If the grain never got further than the hopper we should never have bread; and if bread never got further than the stomach we should never have strength. When the stomach is torrid, helpless and inflamed the food lies in it and rots. The fermentation produces poisons which may, and often do, disorder every other organ and function of the body. This is indigestion or dyspepsia, with many symptoms and disguises. Cure it and you cure nine-tenths of our complaints." These words were uttered many years ago. Since then they have found a remedy, now known as the Shaker Digestive Cordial. It is made from medicinal plants, cultivated by them. It is a food and digests other foods. Taken while eating it rests the stomach and nourishes the system. The pains and distresses of dyspepsia disappear before it. It prevents fermentation and soon restores full power to the digestion. It succeeds in the worst cases. It is worthy the name of the people whose name it bears. Any druggist will sell you a trial bottle for ten cents.

Everything Seems Wrong

to the dyspeptic. The world is upside down; the times are out of joint; he's ready to turn his back upon his best friend.

Now, the thing that oftenest is wrong with dyspeptics, is their choice of a remedy. It seems to lie between drugs and medicines on the one hand and the Carlsbad Sprudel Salt on the other. They can't both be right; there's too much difference in their methods and in their results.

Carlsbad—the Sprudel Spring at Carlsbad has been curing dyspeptics for hundreds of years. Its natural solvent and stimulating properties correct perverted nutrition, repair waste, and bring back a healthy digestion and appetite.

The only genuine imported Sprudel Salt (the water solidified at the spring) has the signature of "EISNER & MENDELSON CO., AGTS., New York," on every bottle.
